MONDAY, NOVEMBER 29. 1742.

Since our last arrived a Mail from France, and Two from Flanders.

Stockholm, Nov. 20.

HE Sieur Pecklin, Minister here from the Duke of Holstein, gives us strong Assurances, That the approaching Peace with Russia will, thro' the Interest of his Master, prove entirely satisfactory. Upon these Assurances the Fourth Order of the States have peremptorily declared against raising Recruits, or putting the Nation to any more Expence on account of the War, which has been so strangely carried on that every body is sick of it. The Point which now employs the Consideration of the Dyet, is the State of our Trade and Manufactures; and there is Reason to believe that Disputes will run very high on this Subject. The Nobility and the Peasants are a little cool in respect to Commerce, but the Clergy and the Burgesses use all their Interest to continue Things in their present State. We shall be able to enter more effectually into the Merits of the Cause, when the Estimates this Day laid before the Secret Committee are made publick.

Hamburg, Nov. 30. Our last Letters from Russia inform us, That the French Interest there is quite declined; which is said to be owing to the indefatigable Endeavours of the British and Hungarian Ministers. They likewise mention a Treaty negotiating at Potsdam, for the perfect Settlement of the Affairs of Europe. This Treaty is to terminate all Differences between Russia and Sweden; between the Duke of Holstein and the King of Denmark; between his Imperial Majesty and the Queen of Hungary, and between the King of Prussia and several States. In consequence of this Negotiation, it is said, that the Emperor will be brought to renounce for ever all his Engagements with France, and will find his Account in a cordial Reconciliation with the House of Austria; that Prince Charles of Lorraine will have an independent Principality; and the King of Sardinia such an Accession of Territory, as will enable him, in Conjunction with the Queen of Hungary, and Grand Duke of Tuscany, to give Law to the House of Bourbon on that Side. It is farther added, That the Contracting Powers oblige themselves to bring 120,000 Men into the Field, in case of any Attempt to violate the Settlement made by this Treaty; by which the Dominions of Don Carlos are to be guaranteed, with a Proviso, That that Guaranty shall be void, in case his Catholick Majesty does not withdraw his Troops out of Italy within a certain Time, or shall hereafter transport any into that Country.

Vienna, Nov. 18. The following Paper is an exact Copy of the Answer made by Count Windischgraetz, in the Name of the States of the Lower Austria, to the Speeches of the Queen and the Chancellor.

'Most Serene and most Powerful Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, Archduchess of Austria, our most Gracious Princess, and Hereditary Sovereign.

'Your most faithful States of your Hereditary Archdukedom of Austria, think themselves obliged to render your Majesty, in the most respectful Terms, their most sincere Thanks, for the Favour you have done them in assembling the present Dyet, and thereby indulging them the Pleasure of presenting themselves at the Foot of your Throne. They likewise thank your Majesty for that gracious and comfortable Speech which you have been pleased to make to them; and humbly assure your Majesty, that they will immediately take your Demands into Consideration, and will take such Measures thereupon as are agreeable to their Duty and Loyalty.

'It is impossible for Words to express how much this poor Country has suffer'd, and of what immense Sums it has been drain'd since a certain Time, the Commencement of which, and every succeeding Day from thence, has been fruitful only in fresh Calamities. But that which has most of all afflicted your Subjects, and transfixed their Hearts with the most piercing Grief, has been, to see your Majesty attack'd in so strange, so unheard-of, so perfidious a Manner, by so great a Number of base and barbarous Enemies, who had sworn the Ruin of the House of Austria and of this Capital, the ancient Refuge of the German Eagles.

'But the God of Armies has been graciously pleased to continue his Almighty Protection to the most virtuous Line of Austria. He has extended his Arm and confounded the Devices of its Enemies. He has caused them to crush their own Power against that Rock which they would have overturned, inasmuch that they have carried nothing from hence but that Infamy which is inseparable from Actions of such a Nature. The faithful Allies of your Illustrious Family are awakened, and will never permit, so long as Regard is had to Publick Faith in any of the Courts of Europe, that the most solemn Treaties should be so insolently broken through, and the Law of Nations totally disregarded, or that an ambitious Power should trample on the Right of the King of Kings, to whom alone belongs the Disposition of Crowns and Sceptres. But notwithstanding these favourable Circumstances, we are sensible, that the Time is not yet come when we may safely sit with our Hands in our Bosoms. We see the Necessity of setting new Armies on foot, and of making the utmost Efforts to find out new Funds for supplying such a Strength as may be necessary to procure a firm and solid Peace, and circumscribe the Author of all our Mischiefs within such Bounds, as shall leave us nothing to fear from him in Times to come. These Considerations will engage your faithful States to examine carefully into what they still remain possess'd of, that without Reserve they may bring it forth, and joyfully sacrifice not their Fortunes only, but their Lives, in your Majesty's Service.

'For how indeed should they act otherwise, when they see at Stake the Interest and Glory of so incomparable a Princess, who really possesses all the great Qualities which the Authors of Antiquity have ascribed to their Artemisia's and Zenobia's, and who effices the Lustre of all the Great Queens that have been the Admiration of later Ages, who while so young, hath pursued those Maxims of Government which long Experience only could teach the greatest Monarchs; who borrows from her Sex nothing but its Graces, and that Majestick Beauty which gains her an Empire over all Hearts, and that happy Fecundity, ineffinable Gift of Heav'n! which encourages us to hope, that your most Serene House shall subsist in full Splendor till Time shall be no more.

'These, most Serene and most Gracious Sovereign, are the sincere Vows and respectful Sentiments of all your most faithful States, of which I have, in their Name, the Honour to inform your Majesty this Day, and to recommend them and myself to your Royal Protection.'

His Royal Highness the Duke of Lorraine arrived here Yesterday with a very small Retinue from the Army, and this Day he had a long Conference with Sir Thomas Robinson. His Royal Highness has been for some time much indisposed, and is yet far from being recovered. The States of the Lower Austria have this Day resolved to reinforce the Troops of the Duchy with 15000 Men, which are to be commanded by Count Harrach, and Count Kvenhuller, Brother to the Veldt-Marshal. Prince Charles of Lorraine is expected here in a few Days, and then the Army will be commanded in Chief by Veldt-Marshal Khevenhuller.

From the Camp at Aitenbach, Nov. 19. The Army is marched hither, and in order to bring up all the Baggage, has been obliged to separate as to-day, yet Orders are given out for marching to-morrow, but to what Place is not publicly known. Marshal Khevenhuller is arrived with his Corps at Allersbach, an Hour from hence: He marches immediately towards the Danube, which River he is to pass, and, as is given out, to defend Deckendorff, which is not abandoned, the French not being got nearer to it than one Hour on this Side of Ober Altsch. The Pontoons that were to be sent to this last mentioned Town received their counter Orders in Time, and are saved. Philibert is arrived likewise to-day with his Detachment from Tummelsdorff, as is the Lieutenant Colonel with his Hussars from Pfirkirchen. General Bretlach is said to be at Bogen near Deckendorff, where General Darnitz still is, and in a Condition to keep their Posts, the Enemy's Detachment appearing now to be not above 6000 Men at most.

Dresden, Nov. 28. We had an Account here on the 26th instant, that General Wallis had taken by Assault, the Day before, Leuthmeritz, and the Garison, reported to be upwards of 600 French, Prisoners of War; and had, tho' with much Difficulty, saved the latter from the Fury of his Troops; as he also had the Magazine, contrary to the Intention of the Besieged, which was to burn it. This is not the smallest Advantage arising from his Success, most of what remains of the Provisions bought in Saxony being thought to be still there, and on which the Garison of Prague in a great Measure relied. The Attack began at One in the Morning, and the Austrians were Masters of the Town at Eight. The Croats behaved with great Bravery. We hope to have more Particulars of that Action by next Post.

Düsseldorf, Nov. 30. An Express has just pass'd thro' this City, with the News of a very brisk Action between the Austrians and Count Saxe near Landau, wherein the former had the Advantage, and the French have been obliged to retire in great Precipitation, with the Loss of 1500 Men killed and wounded. This Courier was going to the Hague. But the French Minister here pretends to have a more authentick Account of the Matter: According to his Advice, this Action happen'd on the 19th at Ober-Altsch, from which Post the Austrians were driven by Count Saxe, with the Loss of 500 Men, and 60 Carriages laden with Ammunition and Provision. This last Story however gains but little Credit, which is owing to the many false Reports we have had from the same Quarter. One of the Princes of the House of Nassau has raised a Battalion of 500 Men for his Imperial Majesty's Service, which began its March for Franckfort a few Days ago, and lost the first Night 120 by Desertion.

Paris, Dec. 3. His Majesty has been pleased to send a printed Manifesto to his Ministers at Foreign Courts, which hitherto has not been publish'd here. This Manifesto turns principally on two Points; first, the justifying his Majesty's Conduct towards the Queen of Hungary, notwithstanding the Engagements with the late Emperor her Father; and next, demonstrating the Irregularity of the Conduct of his Britannick Majesty towards our Court, before as well as since the breaking out of the War in Germany. This Piece is said to have been written jointly by Three of our greatest Ministers, and is look'd upon as one of the most artful Apologies that ever issued from the Cabinet of Versailles. Several Extracts have already stole abroad, and we expect with the utmost Impatience the Publication of this extraordinary Piece.

Extract from the Paris A-la-main.

Paris, Dec. 5. Letters from Genoa, dated the 25th of last Month, inform us, that they had Advice from Bastia in the Island of Corsica, that on the 6th the Regulation was published there in the same Manner as in 1738, under the Guarantee of the King and the Emperor; to which were added some other Pieces, particularly a general Pardon, Explications on the Subject of Homicide, a List of the Favours and Concessions granted the Inhabitants by the Republick, and a small Book of Rates, but that the levying any Taxes or Customs pursuant to that Book was deferred for a Month, in order to give the Islanders Time to consider the whole Matter attentively, on account of their being at present divided in their Sentiments, some inclining to submit, and others to break out again into Rebellion.

The same Letters add, that there was lately arrived in that Port an English Ship of 50 Guns, commanded by Capt. Thomas Fox, which was going to Leghorn, where the Captain was to command such Ships of his Nation as he found there. He arrived in two Days from the Islands of Hieres, and reported, that before he sailed Admiral Mathews had received a Courier from his Court, with a Commission, declaring him Minister Plenipotentiary of his Britannick Majesty in the Mediterranean and Adriatick, with Orders to do all the Service that lay in his Power to the Queen of Hungary and the King of Sardinia, in consequence of which he had order'd the Governor of Villa Franca Artillery and Ammunition, and, in case of Necessity, to embark a considerable Number of Land Forces. The said Admiral expected a Reinforcement of Eight large Ships from England. The Spaniards seem resolv'd to winter in the Bolois, where they intrench themselves with all imaginable Diligence.

Actions 2105.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollution sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectic Fevers, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabeta, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleet known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surpris'd at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleet and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and that All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.
